

Pathway Prayer Guide

As you walk through this guide on your own, think of it as a conversation with God. There's no right or wrong way to do this—simply let these prompts help you focus. You may find it meaningful to speak your prayers out loud in short, simple sentences, or you might prefer the quiet of silent prayer. Don't feel pressure to cover every topic listed; they are here as gentle suggestions, not a checklist. Allow space for silence, too—sometimes the stillness is as important as the words. Above all, let this time be unhurried and open, trusting that God is present with you in every moment.
